

Proclamation

by

Andy Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

WHEREAS, Americans are served every day by public employees at the federal, state, and local levels; and

WHEREAS, Public employees take their oaths seriously; and

WHEREAS, Many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, health care professionals and others, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and to those around the world; and

WHEREAS, Public servants include teachers, doctors, scientists, train conductors, astronauts, nurses, safety inspectors, laborers, computer technicians, social workers, and workers in countless other occupations who provide the services needed by the American people every day; and

WHEREAS, Without these dedicated public workers at every level, continuity of services would be impossible;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDY BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim May 5-11, 2024, as

PUBLIC SERVICE RECOGNITION WEEK in Kentucky.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Frankfort the 1st day of May, in the year of Our Lord Two Thousand Twenty-Four and in the 232nd year of the Commonwealth.
